Standing Body – Secretariat of LAU comprising a coordinator, three torture case filing specialists for Dushanbe City and RRS, Soghd and Khatlon Regions (covering cases for GBAO), two lawyers and a counselor.

Primary Objectives

- Define the degree of incidence of torture and cruel treatment;
- Define procedures and facility for torture case filing, provide legal assistance to torture victims and/or their relatives, initiate and conduct legal proceedings of strategic nature;
- Coordinate activity for provision of legal assistance to torture victims and/or their relatives;
- Develop rules and terms of cooperation with practicing lawyers to provide legal assistance to torture victims and/or their relatives;
- Coordinate the work with state authorities to promote the creation of efficient response and torture investigation mechanisms.

Work Methodology

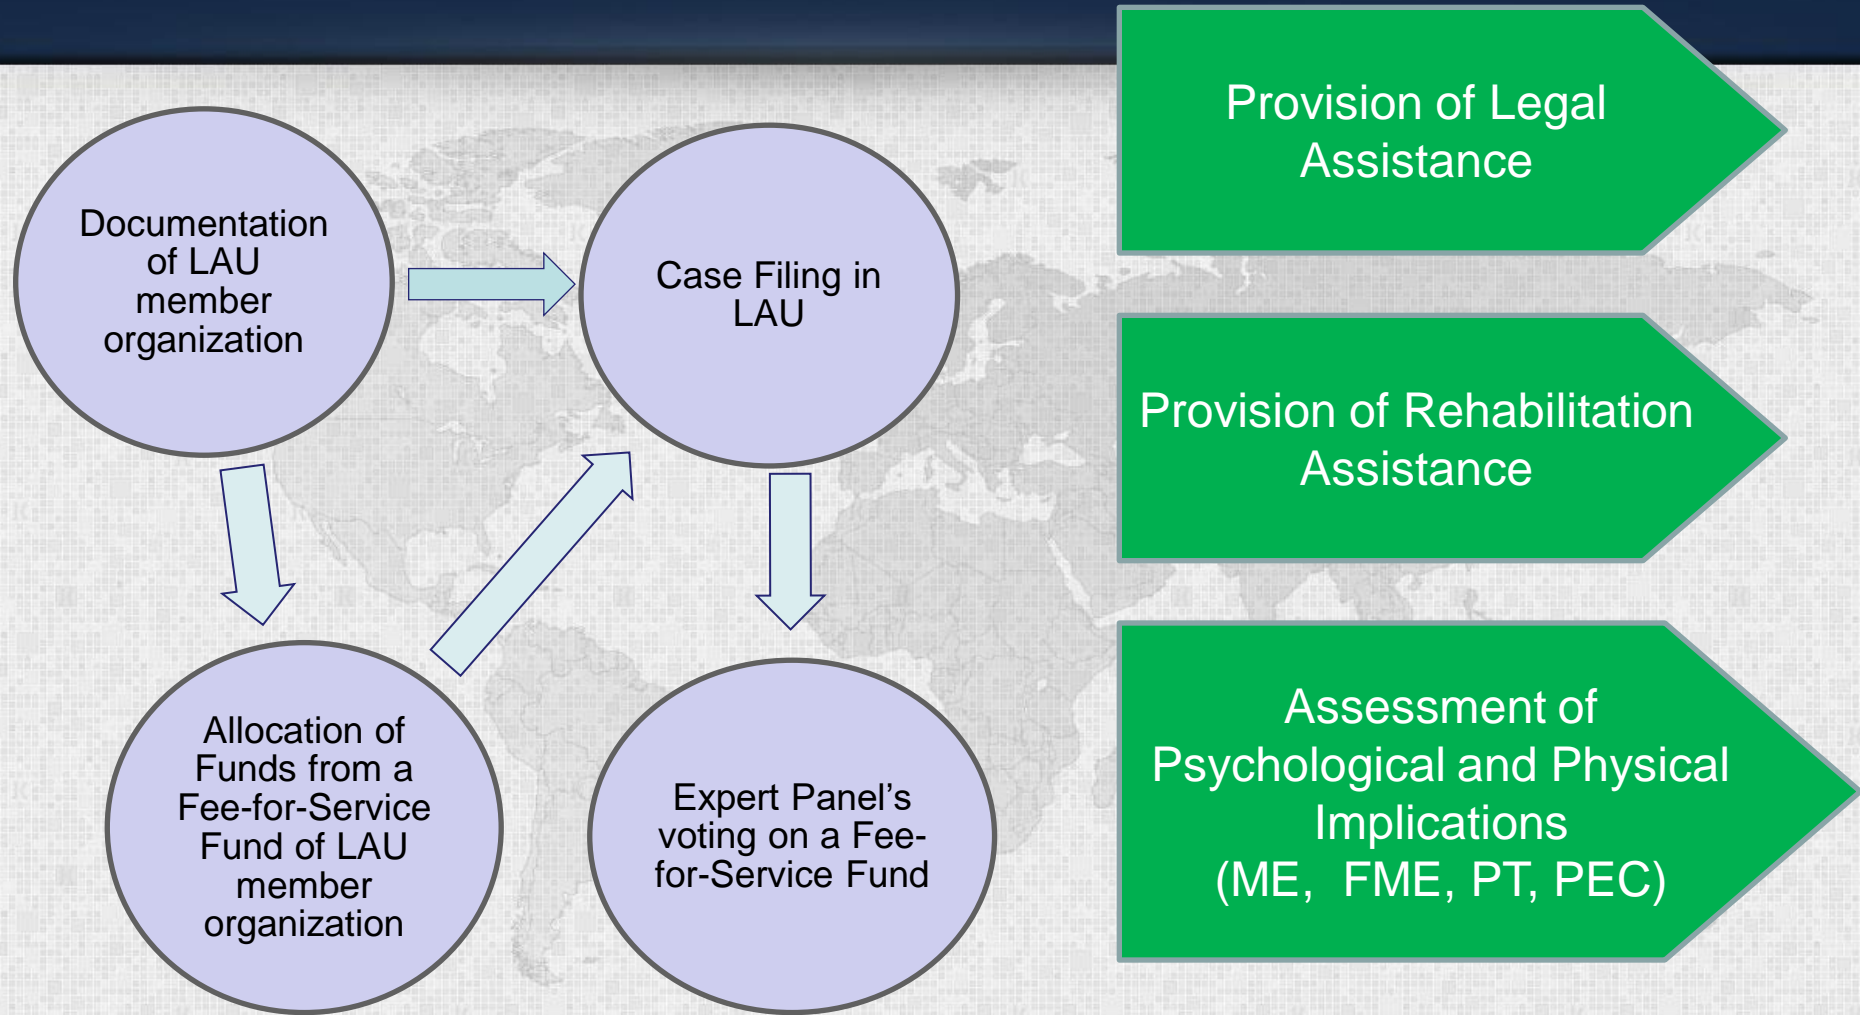

- regular working meetings with lawyers for torture cases detected by them during their practice of law;
- receive torture and cruel treatment claims from citizens;
- file torture cases;
- provide legal assistance to torture victims;
- take measures to provide for the safety of torture victims and their relatives;
- coordinate the work with other Coalition's units for torture and cruel treatment claims lodged to the Coalition;
- monitor selected legal proceedings concerning torture claims;
- share experience and best practices on protection of torture victims.

Procedures and Mechanisms for Provision of Legal Assistance

- Legal assistance is provided through counseling, legal (expert) case management and representation in state authorities and courts.
- Ground for legal case management and representation in state authorities is a standard written application of potential torture victim and/or victim's relatives filed to the organization's lawyer – member of LAU. Applicant should sign an application voluntarily, without outside interference.

Torture Message Validity Check

- Torture evidence filing;
- Personality identification of eye-witnesses, their interviewing, in case of obtaining consent for provision of information;
- Obtaining of medical documents and holding meetings with physicians upon request of torture victims or relatives themselves (if a victim is not alive);
- Familiarization with materials of official investigation, if at that stage it seems to be possible;
- Reception of other evidence;
- Provision of torture victim's photo with the consent of an applicant;
- Drawing up a validation report

Fee-for-Service Fund for Provision of Legal Assistance

- Payment for services of lawyer who provides legal assistance to potential torture victims and/or their relatives;
- Transport and daily allowances, when outreach lawyer's services are needed to protect torture victims;
- Expenses related to provision of medical care to torture victims or eye-witnesses: purchase of drugs/medications, payment for emergency operations, provision of psychological aid to/rehabilitation of torture victims;
- Expenses for attraction of specialists to carry out expert examination, with damage assessment;
- Expenses to pay for other interventions aimed at provision of protection to torture victims and/or their relatives, lawyers and eye-witnesses (temporary apartment lease, meal options, transport costs for temporary residence, purchase of SIM-card, Internet, etc.).
